The hospital is a not-for-profit institution committed to delivering accessible, high-quality healthcare at affordable prices to its communities. It has channelled resources into coordinated projects to enhance patient experience, strengthen clinical capability, and ensure long-term operational sustainability. Recognising that the existing equipment and buildings are considerably old and in need of redevelopment, the hospital has prioritised projects that address these challenges to ensure a more hygienic and satisfactory experience for patients. This report provides a consolidated account of the work completed during the reporting period.

Infrastructure and Civil Works

In the financial year 2025-26, Durgabai Deshmukh General Hospital and Research Centre launched a comprehensive infrastructure renewal programme to address the pressing needs of its ageing facilities. The hospital repaired roof leakages across five major blocks, covering about 2,400 square metres. This work effectively safeguarded critical clinical and administrative areas from water damage. Compared to the previous year, maintenance-related disruptions have reduced by nearly 50%, marking a significant improvement in operational reliability.

More than 80 windows were replaced throughout patient wards, staff rooms, and common areas. As a result, natural lighting levels in patient wards increased by 30%, and ventilation and thermal insulation have markedly improved. "The renovated wards are much brighter and more comfortable for both patients and staff," noted a staff nurse, underscoring the positive changes brought by these upgrades.

Eight patient and attendant bathrooms were renovated, introducing modern fixtures and accessibility features. This has led to a noticeable increase in patient satisfaction scores, with many patients remarking on the improved hygiene and ease of use. An extensive overhaul of over 700 metres of internal plumbing lines resolved persistent water supply and drainage issues, resulting in a 40% reduction in related maintenance calls.

Interior upgrades were also underway in the Outpatient Department, three Operation Theatres, and all inpatient wards. These improvements have created brighter, cleaner, and more functional environments for both patients and healthcare professionals. A doctor commented, "The upgraded operation theatres have made procedures smoother and safer."

In addition to these structural improvements, the hospital implemented sustainability-focused measures to optimise resource utilisation. Instead of purchasing new items, 65 pieces of wooden furniture—including tables, cupboards, and storage units were carefully refurbished and restored. This approach extended their useful life by an average of three years and reduced costs by over 30%.

A systematic decluttering drive identified and removed more than 120 obsolete or unused items from clinical and administrative spaces. This freed up over 150 square feet for essential activities and contributed to a more organised, hygienic environment. Staff reported that these efforts created more space for patient care and made daily tasks more efficient.

Engineering and Utility Upgrades

Previously, frequent electrical failures disrupted patient care, and poor drainage led to sanitation concerns during heavy rains. These upgrades directly addressed these issues. The hospital undertook a targeted overhaul of its engineering systems during the year. Outdated electrical wiring was replaced, and backup generators were repaired, resulting in a 30% reduction in power outages and improved safety for both patients and staff. The sewage system was upgraded by relaying over 500 metres of drainage pipes and installing new sump pumps, which eliminated waterlogging in clinical areas and reduced maintenance calls by 40%. To ensure consistent access to safe drinking water, a new purification system was commissioned, benefitting approximately 1,200 patients, staff, and visitors daily. Collectively, these investments have significantly bolstered the hospital's utility infrastructure, enhancing reliability and operational efficiency.

Patient Amenities and Campus Environment

Recognising that the patient and visitor experience extends beyond clinical interactions, the hospital invested in improvements to the campus environment. Covered parking facilities have been constructed for two-wheelers and the institutional van, providing protection from sun and rain and easing pressure on previously congested areas. Landscaping and gardening works were undertaken to create more welcoming green spaces, and pavers and protective blocks were installed around trees on the campus to preserve them while improving pedestrian movement. A cafeteria was to be newly set up to serve patients, attendants, and staff, addressing a longstanding gap in on-site amenities.

Clinical Equipment and Information Systems

Several pieces of clinical equipment were upgraded during the year to support improved diagnostic and therapeutic capability. In parallel, the hospital modernised its administrative technology infrastructure, with significant upgrades to both the billing software and the Tally accounting system. These enhancements have improved the accuracy and efficiency of patient billing, financial recording, and management reporting, and they position the hospital well for further digital initiatives in the years ahead.

Educational Institution Development

A landmark development during the reporting period was the upgradation of the institution's nursing school. Interior renovation was completed to bring the teaching environment in line with modern educational requirements, and the institution is all poised to get upgraded from a school to a nursing college. This transition will substantially expand the hospital's contribution to nursing education in the region and creates new pathways for the development of qualified clinical staff aligned with the hospital's own service mission.

Human Resources, Compliance, and Outreach

The hospital pursued an active recruitment programme during the year to strengthen its clinical and support workforce in line with expanded service capacity. All applicable licences and statutory certificates were renewed in a timely manner, ensuring continued regulatory compliance across the institution's varied operations. The hospital also expanded its community presence through marketing activities aimed at increasing public awareness of available services, complemented by medical camps conducted in surrounding communities. These camps extended preventive and primary care to populations who might otherwise face barriers to accessing institutional healthcare, and they remain a cornerstone of the hospital's service philosophy.

Acknowledgement and Outlook

The breadth of work completed during 2025-26 reflects the generosity of the hospital's CSR partners, the careful stewardship of management and trustees, and the dedication of staff across every department. The Board records its sincere appreciation to all donor organisations whose contributions made these improvements possible, and to the hospital's clinicians, nurses, administrators, and support staff who sustained service delivery throughout a year of intensive renovation activity.\

Building on this foundation, the hospital looks forward to consolidating these gains in the coming year, deepening clinical excellence, and continuing to serve its communities with compassion and competence.

3. DURGABI DESHMUKH LEGAL AID & COUNSELING CENTRE FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN:

Chairperson : Smt. P.Vimala

Secretary : Smt. A.Gandhi

The unit has been functioning since 2005. The women lawyers and counsellors had taken lot of interest and was functioning well under the able guidance of Former Member Secretary, Tamil Nadu State Legal Services Authority.

After Covid-19 the number of cases has been considerably reduced. Again, we put all our efforts. We started getting cases gradually. Till date the expenses were borne by some philanthropists. We never collected any amount from the applicants (women). Whenever our counselling failed, we used to take up the cases to court, we provided Legal Aid which were sponsored by donors.

For the last 2 to 3 years most of the cases were dealt with us over phone and sometimes we arranged conference calls also. We are now getting one case per month. As on date, the cases attended to our centre for counselling are as follows:

1. Kousalya from Kovilambakkam: She approached us and requested us to do counselling to her husband. But he did not turn up inspite of our repeated letters. Finally, the applicant was advised, to try on her own. Asked her to sit and talk to him friendly and try to thrash out the misunderstanding between them. She did it successfully and now they are living together peacefully.
2. Milvin - male applicant: As we don't encourage male applicants, he was informed about our centre. But he said, he came to us to sort out the problems of his employee and his wife. He was asked to bring them together to our centre. Date was fixed; letters were sent twice to his employee to bring his wife but he didn't turn up. The case was closed.

3. Neethi: Very old case, we got Neethi Divorce and custody of the child long back. Now she again approached us with a request to do counselling to her son, who is in adolescent age. She was asked to bring her son, in the month of July, 2026.
4. Mohana Sundari: Old case, we got her maintenance for her and her daughter. She is getting the maintenance from her husband regularly (salary attachment), who was ex-employee of Port Trust, Chennai. Now again she approached us, as she had filed case on her own for return of her gold jewellery. She wanted a lawyer to represent her before the court and help her in getting back her jewellery from her husband.
5. Vinodhini: Vinodhini is physically challenged women with 4 years old son. Her husband Anand refused to come to our centre for counselling. Counselling is being given to both the applicant and her husband. Anand does not want to live with her without any proper reason. She says if he insists, she would not mind, giving him Divorce, provided her husband gives considerable amount as monthly maintenance, and also whatever money, he has taken from her moth to be refunded and also all her jewellery, which she given to him to repay his loan. The matter is pending.
6. Martina: She lives near Shri Perumbudur, separated from her husband for the last 3 to 4 years. She wants only Divorce, not counselling. She couldn't tolerate her husband's torture (mental and physical), wants us to file a case for divorce.
7. Anusha: She is a well-educated and working as teacher in a school at Nanganallore, got one girl baby. She says her husband is suffering from Schizophrenia. She does not want to live with him further. At the same time, she is secured of her husband. Her husband is very much attached to their daughter. Apart from our counselling, we told her to make up her mind and take their decision and also we told her that we will help her according to her decision. She did not turn up against for 3 to 4 months.

Due to non-availability of funds, we are unable to take up the following cases to courts.

1. Selvi - for divorce from her second husband
2. Jayanthi - for divorce (Christian)
3. Radha - Physically Challenged waiting for legal aid
4. Chitra - Waiting for legal aid
5. Prema - Waiting for maintenance and divorce with a daughter (physically challenged)
